

Your Glory

Capo 1

Piano Intro - C Am C Am

Csus2

Am7

You saw the world and it grieved Your heart, You saw all the children that you set apart, the sons of God saw the daughters of men, they married the world that Noah condemned

F Em7

and You sighed, You sighed

(introduce cello)

You saw the thoughts that Your children had, their thoughts were only continually bad corruption that started in Adam's head had flooded the world through the thoughts that were said

F Em7 F G

and You sighed, and You sighed, You sighed

Chorus:

C

G

You said within Your heart "Why have I created the earth, created sky?"

Am7

F

You created it for Your glory, You created it for Your glory

(repeat)

Bridge (cello movement increase)

G

"Despite the wicked that plagues all the earth,

Am7

F

I have seen one man who doesn't walk by himself.

This one man has found grace in my eyes,

I will build him an ark to keep him safe from the skies

Instrumental Chorus (2x) – cello counter melody

Chorus:

C

G

You said within Your heart "Why have I created the earth, created sky?"

Am7

F

You created it for Your glory, You created it for Your glory

(repeat)

Instrumental Chorus Outro – fade out – cello / piano improvisation